

CRIMINAL

PRETRIAL

Accusatory instruments

People v Colon-Colon

169 AD3d 187 (4th Dept) (2/11/19 DOI).

Waiver of indictment lacked required information. Strict adherence to statute is required. SCI dismissed.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_01039.htm

People v Titus

171 AD3d 1256 (3rd Dept) (4/8/19 DOI).

Date and time missing from waiver of indictment. Issue survived plea. Reversal and dismissal of SCI.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_02588.htm

People v Moseley

172 AD3d 1461 (3rd Dept) (5/6/19 DOI).

Second superseding indictment was nullity, as was any action flowing from its filing. Reversal.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_03408.htm

People v Diego

172 AD3d 1766 (3rd Dept) (5/28/19 DOI)..

Waiver of indictment/SCI defective; they did not charge offense for which D was held for action of GJ.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_04054.htm

People v Eggleston

173 AD3d 1252 (3rd Dept) (6/10/19 DOI).

Waiver of indictment made after filing of indictment was defective. SCI was defective too, because crime named was not a lesser included offense of original charge.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_04497.htm

People v Coss

178 AD3d 25 (3rd Dept) (10/18/19 DOI).

SCI jurisdictionally defective; it charged offense greater than the felony charged in the felony complaint.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_07445.htm

People v Walley

176 AD3d 1513 (3rd Dept) (11/4/19 DOI).

Failure to state approximate time of offense fatal. (But see People v Thomas, COA, 11/26/19.)

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_07816.htm

People v Mackie

2019 NY Slip Op 53940 (3rd Dept) (12/2/19 DOI).

Dismissal of conspiracy count where overt act was not alleged.

Grand jury

People v Arevalo

172 AD3d 891 (2nd Dept) (5/13/19 DOI).

Error to grant motion to dismiss indictment. Integrity of proceeding not impaired. DA had no duty to present evidence that was not entirely exculpatory, and properly presented expert testimony.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_03610.htm

People v Ballowe

173 AD3d 1666 (4th Dept) (6/10/19 DOI).

Court erred in granting People leave to re-present case to second grand jury without figuring out if they presented the promised new evidence.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_04566.htm

People v Carlin

173 AD3d 1363 (3rd Dept) (6/17/19 DOI).

In drug possession/sale case, grand jury proof did not sufficiently establish that the substance was crack cocaine.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_04788.htm

People v Monforte

33 NY3d 1124 (9/6/19 DOI).

Accused was held for grand jury action upon a felony complaint charging him with 2nd degree murder, a class A felony, punishable by life in prison. Thus, he could not properly waive indictment and agree to be prosecuted for a lesser included offense—1st degree manslaughter—in order to facilitate the plea bargain.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_06451.htm

Authority to prosecute

People v Hodgdon

175 AD3d 65 (3rd Dept) (7/12/19 DOI).

Executive Law § 552 is facially unconstitutional in granting prosecutorial authority to officer other than AG or a DA—the Justice Center for the Protection of People with Special Needs. Its constitutionality may be preserved by construing it to require DA to consent to prosecution.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_05596.htm

People v Ablove

2019 NY Slip Op 08453 (3rd Dept) (11/25/19 DOI).

Based on the Executive Law and the Governor's Executive Orders, the AG had authority to investigate official misconduct and perjury by a DA in relation to the prosecution of a police officer who shot an unarmed citizen. Indictment against former Rensselaer County DA was reinstated.

No consent

People v Hickey

172 AD3d 745 (2nd Dept) (5/6/19 DOI).

Consent of the defendant's mother for police entry into home to speak to him did not encompass search of living room. Reversal, dismissal.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_03364.htm

People v Butkiewicz

175 AD3d 792 (3rd Dept) (8/9/19 DOI).

Evidence did not show wife's actual authority to consent to warrantless search of husband's cell phone.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_06118.htm

People v Santiago

176 AD3d 744 (2nd Dept) (10/7/19 DOI)

NYPD officers could not rely on the defendant's consent to searched by NJ parole officers to justify their search of his safe. UnMirandized statements were not voluntary.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_07099.htm

No reasonable suspicion

People v Bilal

170 AD3d 83 (1st Dept) (3/11/19 DOI).

Police had no reason to suspect that the defendant was the gunman, where the description of the shooter was vague and generic, and area in question was not desolate. Pursuit improper.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_01673.htm

People v Floyd

171 AD3d 787 (2nd Dept) (4/8/19 DOI).

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_03305.htm

People v Turner

178 AD3d 70 (3rd Dept) (10/18/19 DOI).

No reasonable suspicion that the D was concealing drugs under clothes so as to validate a strip search.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_07443.htm

People v Williams

2019 NY Slip Op 08048 (4th Dept) (11/11/19 DOI).

People did not make confirmatory observations of criminal conduct reported in anonymous 911 call and had at most founded suspicion.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_08048.htm

No probable cause

People v Perez

170 AD3d 496 (1st Dept) (3/18/19 DOI).

There was no probable cause, as needed to handcuff the defendant. Suppression and new trial granted.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_01822.htm

People v Garcia

175 AD3d 1319 (2nd Dept) (9/16/19 DOI).

There was no probable cause that vehicle contained contraband in the trunk.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_06509.htm

People v Hightower

176 AD3d 865 (2nd Dept) (10/15/19 DOI).

People v Nettles

172 AD3d 1102 (2nd Dept) (5/20/19 DOI).

Error to deny Darden hearing where otherwise there was insufficient proof to show probable cause.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_03816.htm

Custodial interrogation/Right to counsel

People v Torres

172 AD3d 758 (2nd Dept) (5/6/19 DOI).

Statements the defendant made to detectives were product of custodial interrogation without benefit of Miranda warnings. New trial ordered.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_03380.htm

People v Hernandez

174 AD3d 1352 (4th Dept) (8/5/19 DOI).

The D's statements to police should have been suppressed. He was ordered out of bedroom in middle of night, told to stay in vestibule, not Mirandized, but subjected to pointed questions for an hour.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_05844.htm

People v Dorvil

175 AD3d 708 (2nd Dept) (8/30/19 DOI).

Affirmances

People v Diaz

33 NY3d 92 (2/22/19 DOI).

Detainees informed of recording of non-privileged calls have no legitimate expectation of privacy. It was fine for DA to use incriminating statements made in calls in prosecution of the defendant. Two dissents.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_01260.htm

People v Simmon

171 AD3d 557 (1st Dept) (4/19/19 DOI).

Police deception was not so fundamentally unfair as to deny due process and undermine voluntariness of the defendant's actions. Denial of suppression upheld.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_02952.htm

People v Wade

172 AD3d 1644 (3rd Dept) (5/20/19 DOI).

Sexual crimes

People v Madsen

168 AD3d 1134 (3rd Dept) (1/4/19 DOI).

Numerous convictions of sexual offenses were reversed as against the weight of evidence. One victim did not remember how many times the defendant had oral sexual contact with him. Multiple counts were duplicitous. The jurors were not told to relate each count to a specific act and not use any single act to support guilt on more than one count.

Sentence reductions explained

People v Allende

168 AD3d 464 (1st Dept) (1/11/19 DOI).

Two dissenters opined that a term of eight years for robbery should be reduced to five years, since the defendant was only age 21 at the time of offense, his first felony; his mother had died when he was a teenager; he had struggled with mental health issues; the more culpable codefendant received a term of five years; and the harsh sentence appeared to punish the defendant for going to trial.

People v Reid

173 AD3d 1663(4th Dept) (6/10/19 DOI).

Sentence reduced from consecutive to concurrent terms for drug sale, where crimes were first felonies, the defendant was a small fish, and lenient plea deal had been offered before trial.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_04565.htm

People v Brown

174 AD3d 1329 (4th Dept) (7/8/19 DOI).

Sentence of 15 years to life for several convictions too harsh, given plea offer of 2½ to 5 years. Reduced to aggregate of 9 to 18 years.

People v Bakayoko

174 AD3d 730 (2nd Dept) (7/19/19 DOI).

Although the defendant had served his sentences, the excessiveness argument was not academic, in light of potential immigration consequences. Modification to definite terms of 364 days.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_05677.htm

People v McCoy

174 AD3d 1379 (4th Dept) (8/5/19 DOI).

Burglary term cut from 12 to five years, where defendant had been offered probation and had serious mental health issues.

Enhanced sentence errors

People v Hunter

173 AD3d 1249 (3rd Dept) (6/10/19 DOI).

Trial counsel was ineffective for failing to challenge enhanced sentence. Court did not give Parker warnings. (See also People v Barnes, 3rd Dept, 11/27/19.)

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_04496.htm

People v King

2019 NY Slip Op 08729 (3rd Dept) (12/6/19 DOI).

Parker warnings did not alert D that if he violated terms, he could get greater sentence. Appeal not moot, though he had served enhanced sentence, since he was entitled to option of withdrawing guilty plea.

Other sentencing issues

People v Andre

168 AD3d 757 (2nd Dept) (1/11/19 DOI).

It was error to order two sentences to run consecutively, where the plea court did not warn the defendant that a return to court for sentencing was a condition of the plea/sentence commitment.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_00136.htm

People v Sumter

169 AD3d 1275 (3rd Dept) (3/1/19 DOI).

The PD who represented the defendant at the resentencing hearing was the County Judge who had initially sentenced him. Reversal and remittal due to the conflict.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_01460.htm

People v Fitch

170 AD3d 1572 (4th Dept) (3/15/19 DOI).

People v Carpio

171 AD3d 1206 (2nd Dept) (4/29/19 DOI).

Article 78 was proper vehicle to present argument that PRS component of sentence should be reduced because he was not credited with 11 months of time served.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_03068.htm

People v Cutler

173 AD3d 1269 (3rd Dept) (6/10/19 DOI).

Sentence vacated. Court did not grant adjournment when defendant was in hospital due to drug overdose.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_04504.htm

People v Herrod

174 AD3d 1322 (4th Dept) (7/8/19 DOI).

Persistent felony offender finding vacated. No history of violence, drugs, or serious offenses.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_05450.htm

People v Ward

175 AD3d 722 (2nd Dept) (8/30/19 DOI).

New trial held due to deprivation of fair trial would be held before different justice because, during sentencing, trial judge made nasty, intemperate remarks.

People v Garcia

175 AD3d 612 (2nd Dept) (8/23/19 DOI).

Court erred in failing to consider whether the D, age 18 at time of offense, should be afforded YO status.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_06205.htm

YO granted

People v Sheldon O.

169 AD3d 1062 (2nd Dept) (3/1/19 DOI).

Supreme Court should have granted YO status to the defendant, who was 18 at time of offense; played minor role; spent two years in pretrial detention; cooperated with authorities; had no prior record; had development delays.

Other decisions

People v Rosario

170 AD3d 1275 (3rd Dept) (3/11/19 DOI).

Judge who denied 440 motion had worked at Legal Aid and had represented the defendant in the instant case. Statutory disqualification. Remittal.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_01679.htm

People v Rudolph

170 AD3d 1258 (3rd Dept) (3/11/19 DOI).

ADA became defense counsel, but no harm from potential conflict. Denial of 440 upheld.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_01675.htm

People v Giuca

33 NY3d 462 (6/17/19 DOI).

Second Department erred in reversing order denying CPL 440.10 motion based on a Brady violation. The jury could not have properly found a tacit understanding that a prosecution witness hoped to receive a benefit for his testimony. A witness's subjective hope was not enough.

CPL 440.20 motions

People v Montague

171 AD3d 1306 (3rd Dept) (4/15/19 DOI).

Defendant wrongly sentenced as SFO. Date of original sentence, not resentence, controlled.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_02750.htm

CPL 440.30 motions

People v Dorsey

170 AD3d 417 (1st Dept) (3/11/19 DOI).

Motion for DNA testing properly denied. Subject evidence could not be located.

Sealing

Matter of James Q.

32 NY3d 671 (2/22/19 DOI).

MHL § 33.13 did not require automatic sealing of court record involving insanity acquittees with dangerous mental disorders.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_01166.htm

Civil management

MHLS v Sullivan

32 NY3d 652 (2/15/19 DOI).

MHL does not mandate presence of assigned counsel at treatment planning meetings for Article 10 respondents placed in a sex offender treatment program at a secure treatment facility.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_01122.htm

Matter of State of NY v Jerome A.

172 AD3d 446 (1st Dept) (5/13/19 DOI).

Proof at Frye hearing satisfied State's burden as to unspecified paraphilic disorder to show mental abnormality.

http://www.nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_03531.htm

Matter of State of NY v Ted B.

174 AD3d 630 (2nd Dept) (7/12/19 DOI).

State failed to prove that respondent had inability to control behavior, thus requiring secure treatment facility.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_05550.htm

Parole

Matter of Piagentini v NYS Board of Parole

176 AD3d 138 (3rd Dept) (8/23/19 DOI).

Widow of cop murder victim lacked standing to challenge grant of parole to the defendant. Her victim impact statement was properly considered. One dissent.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_06229.htm

Matter of Cobb v DOCCS

176 AD3d 507 (1st Dept) (10/18/19 DOI).

Parolee's release conditions implicating fundamental rights must be reasonable. Ban on travel in Queens was unreasonable.

http://nycourts.gov/reporter/3dseries/2019/2019_07480.htm

Matter of Karimzada v NYS Board of Parole

176 AD3d 1555 (3rd Dept) (11/4/19 DOI).

COMPAS assessment as to history of violence and risk of absconding was medium, not high as the Board thought. Remittal for proper administrative review.
